

Lillian Dallas Carson

September 5, 1937 - May 29, 2017

On September 5, 1937, Lillian Dallas Carson was born to Boise and Geneva Dallas in St. Petersburg, Florida. She was the last of five daughters and a graduate of Gibbs High School (St. Petersburg, FL).

In 1956, she married George Ross and moved to Atlanta, Georgia where she became an employee for the U.S. Postal Service. In 1979, she joined the City of Atlanta. After 24 years of outstanding service, she retired as an Installation Chief for the Department of Public Works.

Lillian and George raised three wonderful children and divorced in 1973. In 1981, Lillian married R.C. Carson and they divorced several years later.

She was loved by many for her great wit, her ability to listen and offer her unique perspective on life. She possessed a strong desire to help others get over life's "humps" with sage advice about their lives and careers. She understood that sometimes a push in the right direction is all most people need.

On Monday, May 29, 2017, she departed this life. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memories: three children, Yvonne (Charles) Payne, Gerald (Carolyn) Ross, and Sylvia Ross; four grandchildren: Dimitri, Daniel, Gerica and Dominique; six great grandchildren: a sister, Lola Mae Brown; a host of nieces, nephews and friends; and her most beloved pet, Boise.
