

Lucinda Cain

April 19, 1948 - April 4, 2021

Lucinda O. Jackson Cain “Cindy” of McDonough, GA passed away on April 4, 2021 surrounded by her 3 loving children. Cindy was born on April 19, 1948 to proud parents Solomon and Lillian (Steptoe) Jackson in Bronx, NY; she immediately brought joy and laughter into the world. Cindy went on to graduate from Washington High School as an honor student. After graduating from high school she went on to pursue a Master’s Degree at Spellman College and Albany State University.

Cindy was a fiercely dedicated mom to all of her children, raising them to go on and accomplish great things. Family came first and was above all else, a value she instilled in all those around her. The hole left by her absence is impossible to fill.

Cindy was preceded by her mother Lillian, father Solomon and two brothers Wilson and Benjamin.

She is survived by her children Michael (Tammy), Jennifer and Nickolas (Letrice); her grandchildren, Martavois, Treyvon and Nevaeh as well as her great grandson Keontae.

Subject: Lucinda "Cindy" Cain, with gratitude, love and hope, thank you so much!

*Sometimes, our greatest mistake is stronger than fate.,
Its bigger than life or the decisions we make.
My heart aches, there's a sadness within...
I know not where I'm going, i only know where ive been.
In love, there is life.... in life, there are lessons
We found these together
Guilty as charged, but still im confessing.
And In both, there are blessings...
Described, detailed and defined from the warmth of your essence
Gifted, glistened then given in the form of your presence.
You always told me, "its never too late!".... "trust in the Lord, Todd never give up the faith"
I love you Cindy Cain, that's what i want to say
I need you and i want you to stay
... and you will, because memories may fade
But who and what you are to someone never goes away.
I love it that... we wanted our love, we didn't want to wait...
We didn't even want the ice cream, just our own Lil piece of cake.
Something to feel on our tongues, the simplest of tastes.
There are some hungers you can never sedate,
And, there are some feelings you can never forsake
You gave from your heart, always, so its my love you'll take
You always told me that you would love me forever
And promises made must always be kept...
I'm already falling to pieces, how much longer till my heart breaks?... till my head won't stop hurting from crying so much? Til I'm having a hard time breathing from shortness of breath? Til I can't push on anymore because there's nothing left? How much longer til reality sets in and i realize your strength, your love and your arms around me aren't here to keep me safe?
How do I find you? And where are the pearly gates?
So lost in this life, sometimes i don't know if i could even enter*

*Life's like a chill that's come winter
Please know...
You were more than my heart, you were my center
And you never made me give up on love, you made me surrender
I think of you now,
My friend, my love, my mentor
I feel you as well
So kind, so warm, so tender
And you, you, my dear sweet sweet Cindygirl
Always when I look to the heavens
I'll think of you
In this crazy world Of calm and chaos
Of darkness and light
Of saints and sinners
And I'll forget so much Of my life
But you, Lucinda Cain
Always,
Always
... until my very last breath*

I PROMISE YOU...I WILL REMEMBER YOU!

“ Heaven couldn't wait to gain the sweetest angel of them all 😭 . I remember growing up , you && my granddaddy bought me my first dog . We named the dog coojoe. He was a friendly dog , he didn't like me at times 🤔 but when you came home he would always wanna be under you no matter what . A few months went by and coojoe got sick , you && my granddaddy took me fishing to keep my mind off it . When we came back home , he was gone 😞 . You told me not to worry about it you'll get me another dog && that's just what you did . I remember our fishing trips , nor our days we would sit on the back porch and just laugh and listen to Marvin Gaye with old Marvin . I love you dearly && I'm truly gonna miss you . May your Soul Rest In Peace . Until we meet again , I love you 🥰
