

Luvenia Stroud

July 15, 1945 - February 1, 2014

Mrs. Luvenia McCollum Stroud was born to the late Mr. John McCollum and Lucile McCollum on July 15, 1945 in McDonough, Georgia. After 68 years of sharing her life with us, she answered her call to glory on Saturday, February 1, 2014.

Luvenia was raised in a Christian home with a loving, loyal family. She obtained her education at Henry County Training School in McDonough, GA. At an early age, she joined the Kelly Chapel Baptist church where she attended faithfully. Luvenia retired from Solo (formerly Sweetheart Plastics) where she was employed for 31 years. Throughout her life, a relationship with God enabled her to spread love and truth to everyone she came in contact with. Luvenia loved her family and proved to be very helpful if anyone ever needed her. She was a well organized, neat woman that was an astonishing steward of the things God blessed her with. Luvenia was sure to check on her family members with a regular phone call to ensure all was well and she will be missed tremendously.

Luvenia had five brothers and one sister to precede her in death. She leaves to cherish her wonderful memory, a loving and devoted husband, Mr. Lamar Stroud; her mother, Ms. Lucile McCollum; three sisters, Mrs. Mary Ann Davis, Mr. Horace (Fozie) McKnight, and Ms. Hazel Minor; two brothers, Mr. Norman McCollum (of Fayetteville, NC) and Mr. Eugene McCollum; a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and friends.
