“ I'll miss my grandma, she is my peace, my favorite words from her were "Hey Baby" when she would greet me every time I called or saw her. every time in her smooth raspy voice full of soul. "Hey Baby" are the words I'll greet everybody with just to keep it going . Love you most is what she told me when I said Love you more. I love you most gramma (because i never pronounced the n and the d in the word grandma) <3 Gramma Margie <3

“Margie was a stand alone woman. She was funny, crazy, happy, straight to the point, tell you like is was and love you all in the same sentence. Margie as we from Lake City call her Granny, Never met a stranger. She would cuss you out and hug you when she was done. She was a great lady that loved hard. Granny love everyone. And everyone loved Granny. You would get mad with Granny and she would say something to make you laugh and all you anger would go away. Margie would put on a show for the big folks as she call them and talk about them as so as they left. For all the people that Margie took care of she love you with all her heart I hope you know that. For all of us who had the privilege of knowing Margie we too were some lucky people. Margie you worked diligently for your golden wings with laughter and love, you blessed so many of us. Rest with the Master my friend. I will see you again.
