

Dr. Maritane Olibrun Demosthene

July 17, 2014

Doctor Maritane Oliburn Demosthene was born on March 4, 1976 in Port-de Paix, Haiti, the proud twin daughter of the late Lasenie Arianne Olibrun and Arnold Thermonfils Olibrun. Maritane was every parent's dreams. She was a wonderful twin sister to Mariane Olibrun and when you saw Maritane, you were guaranteed to find Mariane. They spent their time playing and sometime doing fun mischief like switching places. Maritane enjoyed laughing and spending time with her family. She was full of maternal instincts. After her mother passed in June 1999, she dotted on her little sister Marie-Violence Mertilus and little brother Ronald Olibrun. She knew exactly what to say to make you laugh. She loved baking cakes as her special way to encourage her siblings. Her childhood was full of excitement. As a child, Maritane was a natural learner who lived life to the fullest. During her childhood years, she learned to play the piano. She enjoyed singing and performing at church and in her local community. Maritane loved to dance; she was a member of her high school majorette team.

Maritane was extremely adept in math and science and attended Leslie Docteur High School in Haiti where she continued to excel in her studies. In 1995, Maritane moved to Miami, Florida, in the United States. She moved from Miami to Orlando and met her high school sweetheart Monod in 1996. Maritane graduated from Jones High School in Orlando, Florida in 1997. Maritane was steadfast in accomplishing her goal to become a doctor and embarked on a journey to begin her medical studies while in Orlando, Florida. She graduated from City College with an Associates of Allied Health in 1999.

After five years of courtship, Monod and Maritane professed their love in the presence of God and their family in 2001. Maritane and Monod moved to Florence, South Carolina after Maritane received a full scholarship to study at Francis Marion University. In 2004, she graduated from Francis Marion with a Bachelor of Science in Biology. Later, Monod and Maritane moved to the Island of Sint Eustatius so she could continue medical studies. In 2008, she received her Phlebotomy certificate from Sint Eustasius University Medical. Maritane received a Master of Health Care Administration from Kaplan University in 2012. In June 2014, Maritane O. Demosthene was awarded her Doctor of Medicine degree and became Dr. Maritane O. Demosthene.

God in his infinite wisdom knows that two are better than one and in 2006, God blessed Monod and Maritane with a beautiful daughter, Makaila Lasenie Demosthene. Maritane was a loving and dedicated wife. She loved Monod very much and affectionately called him Cheri, meaning honey. Monod and Maritane really complimented each other and supported each other's dreams and goals. Maritane received her medical degree while being a dedicated wife, mother and worker due to Monod's unwavering support.

“ I found out about Maritane very late. I met Maritane when we were studying for our boards to become doctors. She quizzed me and I quizzed her. We use to do this after class many evenings. As it is natural to talk about family and other aspects of life, Maritane and I would take breaks and just talk about life. She really loved her husband and daughter. She would do anything for family. I knew for sure she would be the best doctor in the planet, really down to earth. I feel bad that she has left us because I can say being a doctor that Maritane had a lot to offer. She would have helped and been there for a lot of people, so I do not understand why she had to leave us. I will struggle with this, but we all will miss her smile. She was the hardest working student and I remember discussing with her why no one would stay in touch from our group who were studying for boards. She was one of few who tried to connect with everyone, very loving individual. Too often, we make connections in life then go our separate ways. Maritane did it all, school, work, family, and she spread her love. I will miss her a lot. God bless!!

In addition, I forgot to mention. The course instructors were encouraging us to stay longer. I remember Maritane kept saying I need to get home back to my husband and daughter, I miss them. She also did not want to waste money. She was so goal oriented. What an amazing person. From, Dr. Srivastava “ Maritane was a sweet and beautiful soul- always positive and a brilliant smile that would light the room, telling of her deepest joys in life-her husband and daughter, her work and her Lord. We feel a great loss in our church choir family, having had the pleasure of knowing Maritane such a short time. Her family and friends will be covered with prayers, asking our Lord to comfort them and give them peace. Living for Christ is the assurance we have to know we will sing together again someday! Our hearts are burdened with your passing, sweet lady, but we rejoice in knowledge that you are in the presence of God Almighty!

“ Although Maritane was at New Hope Church, singing in the choir, and bringing Makaila to children's choir, for a short period, it was as if she had been with us for a lifetime. Her heart was as big as her smile and there was no doubt that she loved Jesus. I cherish the time I had with my sister in Christ. Well done Maritane!

“ As I shared on Facebook, one of my favorite memories is of her smile and watching her worship. As she sang songs to her Saviour in the choir at church, the love she had for Him was evident. The other memory was of her smile. It oozed of a joy that can only come from knowing Jesus. It was absolutely contagious. I was blessed to have known her for a short season. But I know that I will see her again.
