“ I enjoyed talking with Mary back in May 2021 when the Williams/Elliott family got together to celebrate our mothers who had passed away over the years. She was there to support her children as they celebrated with their father's side of the family, and I remember her doing so on many family occasions over the years. However, this was the first time that we have ever sat and just talked. I am so happy we had that sweet time of fellowship. I pray for God to bless her children and Robert with His peace, comfort and strength during this time. May you experience the love of God, the grace of Jesus Christ and the sweet communion of the Holy Spirit as you celebrate her life and mourn her loss.

Dr. Tony Evans - You cannot deny your circumstances, but you can refuse to give your circumstances the last word. Trust God, and look to Him
