“ I really enjoyed the telephone conversations we have had across the years. She would always ask " Where we at today?" There has never been a time when she didn't say, " How is sister Johnson and the boys?" I Remember she talked to me while I was driving thru Macon and didn't finish until I pulled in my driveway in Jonesboro. Then I told her gotta go now and you be good now you hear! Her response was "And you do the same!"
Take your rest moma Thomas.

“ Mrs. Mary Frances was a great person. I have known her for over 50 years. Her daughter Mattie and I have a great friendship that has lasted that long also.

To the family, The journey of faith may be full of unknowns, but with Jesus, you'll discover that though the waters rage, you will always rise above!

I'm asking God to, " Hold Your Hand" and guide you through these unknowns.

Love You All,
