“ Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I do not die.

“ To my good friend Matt. I will always remember how much of a great and hilarious person that you are. Remember in Jr high school when we use to be a crowd of us walking home? When we left school early to go to the park? Or the time when you wrote in my year book “keep your belly up, I mean your head up”? I’m so blessed to have had you in my life. Me, Jenese, George, Thomas and Eva will forever miss you. We were more then friends we are all family. No matter how far apart we were. We will keep your memory alive. I love you Matt. I miss you. YOU WILL ALWAYS BE OUR LUIGI!!

“ Matt has such a good heart and was always there when you needed him. You could be having the worst day and he would still manage to crack a smile out of you, and make you laugh until you were in tears. Anyone he met he brought joy and laughter. It’s still not hitting me that such a kind and loving soul is gone. I’m going to miss him and I hope he is at peace now.

“ This is my God Son who I loved very much. I will miss him more than words can say and pray that he is at peace. He was a very funny and loveable young man that had so much life in front of him. I Live You Son and will see you again
