You talked about my dad now look at your dad wow !!

Nina Nicole Hawkins - February 28 at 02:59 AM

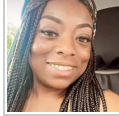

Karen , your right he hated them they let him down

Nina Nicole Hawkins - February 28 at 02:59 AM

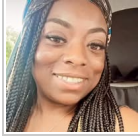

Nina you a delusional. I've never done nothing to you and you just come out the blue hating me. I ain't talk to you or your sister since my daddy funeral and as far as your dad I was In Augusta when he died, honey I didn't give a damn to be honest I was going through my own situation to say anything about him shit I barely knew him just knew he harassed his elderly mom like that one up there. As far as my dad, my dad did NOT date my friends neither was he a pervert nor did he have AIDS! My dad was suffering from something that this whole family clearly seem to have A MENTAL ISSUE! Are you mad because I didn't care about your dad cause I didn't say nothing about him nor did I bother to come to his funeral but you know what!? YOU came to my dad funeral I wonder why? You writing on my dad page but I don't even know where your dad page at. So wherever you getting your information from is lying because I don't care about your dad NEVER HAVE & NEVER WILL.

MiMi Latrece - March 08 at 06:01 AM

Both of y'all are sick as hell and should be tending to your sons that you had when your eggs was pass retirement. You both bully, harrass, and talk down on an elderly woman that is the reason that you both are here. Shirley Crawford may not be a perfect woman or say things the right way or how you wanna hear them, but she is a great woman and act out of pure love raised her children, grandchild, and great grandchildren the best way she knew how by working hard and making sure they have what most considered a great life & helping when she was allowed with some. Please name one child that doesn't work or own their own home or that's not financially stable. She cries, hurt, barely sleep everyday because Mark and Michael. Her two boys that has passed away before her which NO mother should have to experience, but it's nothing that she could have done to prevented it. Both of them had their own life, health problems, and mental illness that they battled with. Maybe because of the military maybe because of things they experienced or went through as active teenage boys or adults that they did but surely nothing that she did. I will not allow you all to disrespect or tell LIES on her even to this day she does everything she can for the children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren that comes from her other family, and even friends whenever they need it. She doesn't think she has the perfect family, but it's the perfect family to her because they come from her. No mother is perfect, but every mother sacrifice and do the best that they can out of love for their children. Which you both should know! I tried to save the evidence of what Karen says & send to her to tell her to report it to the police especially if she acts on the threats she give but she won't out of love for her ungrateful disrespectful daughter. I can guarantee you if Karen needed her she would jump on a plane at the age of almost 86 to be there for her child. She even did it at 84 to see her son that hasn't been home in 20 years despite her glaucoma and health problems of her own, she traveled across the United States to see/visit. When she went to see another son, she was sick as a dog, the whole entire way, but still made it and did not want to turn around or cancel trip and will do that for every child. Karma is real, and you both need to stop where you are doing and respect your mother and grandmother despite the way you feel about her and if it's anything she has done to upset you talk to her. I have plenty of times and she always apologizing and give her reasoning and point of view.

MiMi Latrece - March 08 at 06:52 AM

“ Everyday since you been gone grandma has cried... everytime I cry I say it's my last time I have to let you rest in peace but dad I can't seem to just let you go. I'm a completely different person now that you are gone you have forever broken my heart. The only thing that keeps me going is the fact I have my children. You would really love Jay R & he has grey hair in the middle of his hair just like you!

“ I had only had the chance to meet Mr. Michael once when I was about 15 years old. But what I remember of him was his bright and vibrant spirit, and plenty of laughter. My sole memory of him is a light in this painful time, and I hope he knows just how much he is loved and how much he will be missed.

“Daddy I'm missing you. Thinking about all the good times and memories. Like the time on Christmas Eve night when I peeked out the room and saw you getting our Christmas presents out the attic. I remember playing video games with you. Or what about the time you made us watch Roots on Halloween night lol. Going down to Alabama with papa and grandma to ride horses. We did soooo many fun things. One of my favorite memories when you came to Michelle's graduation with that nice suit on and we joked about how hot it was and you had that suite on. Looking over our text messages and one thing you always made sure we knew is that you loved us. I remember being in the car with you and you always playing Missing you by Case. Well now I'm missing you daddy. We love you and always will forever and ever!!

“ I remember meeting my brother Michael 11 years ago. He and Misty visited Kevin and I in North Carolina. Michael grilled steaks out back with Kevin, while Misty and I prepared salad inside. I didn't eat red meat, but he insisted I eat his food and here I am 50 lbs later! I remember Michael talking to Kevin while grilling, telling him about his weight lifting journey. He told Kevin to stop ego lifting and do repetitions instead (that's how you really build muscle)! Though, due to distance, we didn't see family as much as we'd like, but I have good memories when visiting with Michael and Misty. During family gatherings, Michael would tell us how he cooked certain dishes, and Misty would be right with him in the kitchen. He was a “mom dad”, always making sure everyone was good. When my children were still at home, he told me how to cook good food without spending too much feeding teenagers. Michael said how he used to cook whole chickens for Dorrius and Demetrius as they had healthy appetites playing football. No matter how life can be, he loved his children and grandchildren. He was favorite uncle to many! He was a wonderful father to 6 beautiful children! He had a compassionate heart and will be missed so much. I pray for my family. Misty, my heart goes out to you. This is too much for your heart to have to bear. I will pray for you often and I know Michael will always be with you. I love you brother❤️

“ I will miss you daddy. I'm cherishing our good times together. I remember when you would take us to blockbusters on Friday nights to get us movies. I remember when you use to make us funnel cakes , the best barbecue, you could cook sooo good. You were the jack of all trades! Cooking, painting, cutting hair, fixing cars! Taking us on trips, always coming up to the school. Making special meals for me when you would cook seafood because I'm allergic to it. When my daughter was born, your first grandchild, you were so happy! Daddy our relationship wasn't perfect but I just want you to know I love you and cherish all our memories. I love you and Rest in Peace. Your daughter, Miya Crawford-Banks
