“ So sorry to know this extremely smart lady is no longer with us. She was a Gordon High ‘institution’. She taught my eldest sister, class of ‘75, as well as my middle sister and me, Classes of ‘83 and ‘84, respectively. Teachers with her knowledge and commitment are rare. I am honored to have been a student of hers.

“ Mrs. Trimble was such a great teacher: smart, firm, giving, and classy. I remember the many geometry proofs we had to learn and recite. She was patient and encouraging, but she also demanded excellence and rebuked laziness. Will miss you Mrs. Trimble. Love you and thank you so very much for giving me and us so much. To her family, please be kind to yourselves. She was is a great treasure. Kiietti Walker-Parker, Class of ‘86
