

Nancy Lou Webb

February 24, 1953 - January 24, 2016

Ms. Nancy L. Webb was born on February 24, 1953 in McDonough, Georgia to Mr. Lacy Thompson, Sr. and Mrs. Bernice Tillman Thompson. She entered the loving arms of the Savior on January 24, 2016 in McDonough, Georgia.

Nancy was a strong woman of faith and her devotion to the Savior helped to enrich the lives of others. She was a member of Shiloh Baptist Church, and despite her own personal health challenges she always found time to encourage others with a scripture, prayer, and sometimes a text message.

Nancy graduated Henry County High School in 1971 and was employed with Wachovia Bank, now known as Wells Fargo for over 20 years.

She was a true people person! Her laugh was unmistakable, and she never met a stranger. Nancy loved reading, listening to gospel music, and watching movies. She was a generous person, not for boastful reasons, but because she believed it was what God wanted her to do. Most of all, Nancy loved her family, especially her grandchildren, who she affectionately called "Big Mama's Babies!"

Nancy's love for God and zeal for life will forever remain with her children, Pastor Yvette L. Waldon and her husband Bishop Diante Waldon, Edmund S. Webb and his wife Jada Webb; mother, Mrs. Bernice Thompson; siblings, John L. Thompson, Bernette T. Cooper (Bonnie), Elder Lacy Thompson, Jr. and his wife Dianne Thompson; grandchildren, Briana Webb and Caleb Webb; niece, Evonne Thompson-Jones and her husband Terrance Jones; nephews, Bishop David J. Thompson and his wife Vicki Thompson and Timothy Thompson and his wife Crystal Thompson; aunts, Ruby Barber, Gladys Hill, and Allie Smith; uncles, Anderson Thompson, Ross Thompson, Jr., and Willie James Barber, great-niece Deanna Jones; two great-nephews Stephen and Jonathan Thompson; and a host of cousins, and friends.
