“ Sending my dearest condolences to our family. Uncle Nate, we will miss your humor and wisdom. But we know you are now looking down with the Lord. We will continue to run this race....until we meet again. To the Lee Family, I look forward to seeing you in Quincy, Florida as we gather to love Uncle Nate one more time..and always. Rest in God's peace and enjoy your wings, Uncle. Be strong family, his spirit lives on....

"Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in Me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?" (John 11:25,26).

“ Pastor Lee, thank you for being the man and leader you were to me and my family. You are such an inspiration and your wit and compassion for all people at all times provided so much comfort in the most difficult time of my life. May you rest in peace. The Lord is the comforter for those you left behind and may He keep the Lee family in perfect peace knowing that you are with him

“ We are saddened by your loss however, we celebrate the life of Pastor Lee. From our time in Europe we have come to embrace the times that we have shared with the Lee family. Pastor Lee's larger than life demeanor was a joy in being around. In this tough time in your life, may our friendship, sympathy and heartfelt condolences bring you comfort. Love to the Lee family, The Lankford's.

“ It was during the family reunion I think. I don't remember exactly what happened, but I was upset about something having to do with church. Nay pulled me to the side and talked to me about God in a way a child could understand and relate to. He didn't talk down to me or at me, we had a conversation. He would always pull me out of a corner or encourage me to step outside my shell. He always made me feel welcome and seen. Nay was just “good people”! Toy, Tash, Tony, Ty and Monalisa, keep your head up.

“ Sister Lee and family, may God bless you with comfort that only he can provide you as you experience various emotions now and in the future. May memories of Reverend Lee bring smiles and laughter to your entire family as you reflect on his life, his service and how he made so many family members and friends laugh. I'm grateful for his friendship during the recent months. I wish we had known each other for much longer. Thank you for sharing him and thank God for creating Reverend Lee. Jerome Miller
