

Norma Brown

September 8, 1961 - June 19, 2018

McDonough Chapel

Norma Brown, daughter of Andrea Berry and the late Norman Berry, was born on September 8, 1961, in Chicago Illinois. Norma met Charles Brown on July 4, 1987 and married on December 31, 1987 in Chicago, Illinois. They were married for 30 years and loved each other dearly and faithfully cared and nurtured each other in sickness and in health.

Norma was a graduate of Hirsch High School in Chicago Illinois. Norma had a great passion for the haircare business and was a well-known licensed Master Cosmetologist and cosmetology instructor. Norma was a certified public speaker through the John Maxwell Global Coaching Service where she refined her speaking and coaching talents. She was a motivational speaker at Henry County High School and Ola Middle School. She also mentored high risk students. She was very inspired to see students overcome obstacles and get their lives back on course. Norma loved to travel and working with children helping others who were in need.

Norma loved animals, especially small dogs. She recently purchased a femalemminiature schnauzer dog and named her Dunkin. Dunkin was a special gift to her husband Charles because he loved Dunkin donuts.”

Norma was an author, who wrote her first book, entitled "Turning Heads for God" in Marketplace. Although she was unable to get it published. It is a powerful book of encouragement. " We are the salt of the world, You make the world a better place."

is a short excerpt from her book. Norma was a Christian counselor and Public speaker.

Norma received the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal savior in 2001 at Salem Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga. She was a member of Higher Living Church, Jonesboro, Ga. for several years and served as a Prayer Intercessor. Norma and her husband became members of Tabernacle of Praise Church McDonough, Ga. in 2016. She was ordained as a Deaconess 2017. She served faithfully and volunteered with several ministries of the church.

Norma leaves to cherish her memory, her loving and devoted husband Charles Brown; her mother, Andrea Berry (Norman Antilles Berry Sr); sister, Angela T, Cowans (Bruce); Brothers, Kurt A. Garner (Carrie), and Norman Artillus Berry Jr. nieces Shannen, Shanell, Lashawnda, nephew, Atlas; her aunt Joan Lee Shannon, and a host of extended family members and friends.

Norma will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her. She had a special ability to draw people to her whether they were known or unknown to her. She was very cheerful and full of life. Her memory will forever reside in the hearts of those who cared and loved her dearly.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

JUN 29. 1:00 PM (ET)

Tabernacle of Praise Church International
1640 Hwy 42 North
McDonough, GA 30253
admin@topci.org
<http://topci.org/>

Tribute Wall

GA

“ I met Norma years ago at JCPenny's here in Atlanta. She took care of my hair for years when I was a little girl. I grew up and went to the military and had been away for Atlanta for 12 years until my return in late 2014. I never forgot about Norma's kindness I always thought I was going to search Norma out hopefully reconnect with her, but life kept happening to me and I just never found the time. I've finally found the time & am in complete shock and utterly heartbroken by where my search for Norma has left me. Norma was a beautiful and kind lady who was always so patient with me when I sat in her chair as a little girl and I will never forget her. My deepest condolences to your family. She was a treasure of a person and will forever be missed.

Georjania Anderson - November 19, 2019 at 09:16 PM

AJ

“ At this time of heartache and grief, may it comfort you to know that others are sharing in your sorrow and remembering the family in prayer. I will always remember Norma for her beauty inside and out, her love of the Lord and faithfulness as a servant in His house at Higher Living Christian Church. With Sincere Sympathy and Caring, Althea Johnson.

Althea Johnson - June 23, 2018 at 01:41 PM

LD

“ I was devistated to hear the news of Norma's death last night. Norma was a beautiful soul and I loved her dearly. Thomas and I send sincere condolences to Charles and the remainder of Norma's family. May God receive Norma into His kingdom to Rest In Peace. Charles, we love you and pray that God will keep and strengthen you throughout this difficult time. Thomas & Lynn Dumas

Lynn Dumas - June 23, 2018 at 07:35 AM