“ Peggy you taught me a lot of useful skills while we worked along side one another at Emory. You always remained constant and consistent in my life; even years after I was no longer an employee at Emory. We always shared lots of laughs, secrets and tears throughout the years. You were always "true" blue. I can recall you at my bachelorette party, my wedding and other unforgettable events. You did so many "selfless" deeds and had one of the biggest hearts! You were an "excellent" mother, a loyal sister and loving daughter. I remember how you would speak so highly of Lane and his academic accomplishments. Peggy is an example of what a great woman is made of. I will cherish every photo we took, every laugh, every recipe and all of the many lessons in life you taught me. You are "already" missed... Never forgotten!
