“ A truly sweet, caring person. In spite of his own trials, illnesses he always kept a smile on his face. You will be missed, the world needs more of you. I am glad to have known you and your family and I know your family will follow your legacy. In all things never cease praying and thanking God. God gained another angel, for you are with Kent now forever. My prayers and God's strength to your sweet mother Gwenita.

“ I am very saddened by this news. Randrick was one of the sweetest and gentlest person one could ever know. Always smiling and always full of hope. He's resting for now, and may his loving mother and family find comfort and peace during this sad time.

Jay Phillip - September 20, 2019 at 04:41 AM

“ I am shocked and saddened to hear this news. Randrick is already missed, especially his humor and never-ending optimism. May he rest in God's glory.
