“ Reggie was a cube neighbor for a time. He had a warm light and a gentle manner that was sincere. His journey is done here, if there is another place to experience may he be at peace and enjoy it fully. Namaste Reggie. Daniel

“ Beautiful man with a kind heart, soul and spirit I have ever known... I still can't believe you are gone... I miss you so, so much... I miss how you cared about me or any human being he had met... you touched my life in a positive way... I miss just about everything about you.

As a colleague, Reggie taught me lot of things, as a friend and brother he still taught me a lot of things. Sitting side by side lately, we talked about a lot of things, different topics. He also kept me from getting myself in trouble many times... In most instances to stop me from doing or saying something bad, he will call me by my middle name and say “don't you do it, don't you even think about it, don't you say it, you will regret it later” and I will jokingly stomp my foot and he will stare at me and say “let it go!” and if I still go ahead which I do sometimes, he will just sight giving me a loving look and say “oh my, oh my”... But then he will said a few times, I like you just the way you are, you are blunt... It was an habitual thing we do, I will cherish those memories...

I keep looking on my side at work to say something and I stopped, you are not here anymore but I thank God for you brother and everything that I have learned from you.

May our Lord who hold life's plan bless your soul, grant you eternal rest and peace.

So long brother... You are loved and will be remembered.

Strength and comfort to the family.

“ Reggie has been the son I never had. We shared so many great memories together, traveling and especially going to Chastain to all of the concerts. I am really going to miss him. We spoke on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, and I had no idea, he would not be here for me to tell him about how much I enjoyed my vacation. RIP in peach mi friend and you know they can't crown you until I get there.

“ *Perhaps they are not the stars,
But rather openings in heaven where
The love of our lost ones pours through
And shines down upon us to let us know they are happy.---Eskimo Legend*

I wonder how many stars Reggie just added to the sky?? No way can his happiness be confined to just one or two. He was already shining bright here in earth. You will be dearly missed. Save some seats for the old CP/LN up there. We are well overdue for a get together.

“ I have worked on and off with Reggie for almost 24 years, and we eventually ended up on the same team. We were both in line to get our assigned parking spaces in the near future. I was waiting to see who would get the best spot, but he ended up with a better parking space than I. RIP my friend.

“ Reggie was a great guy, intelligent, funny, and just plain nice. I worked with him at CP/LN for several years and when I left he kept in touch with me to see how things were going. I'll never forget his smile and kindness he always had for me and everyone he came in contact with, I will truly miss him, I had been thinking about him a few days ago and was wanting to contact him to see how things were going but I didn't take the time to reach out and now I really feel a an empty space that I cant be filled. I'm truly heart broken, he was great friend to me. My Condolences to the family.

“ I am truly honored to have known Reggie and be part of his life. Reggie always said he wanted to help people and possibly work in the medical field one day but I believe he helped people every day by just being himself.
