Reginald Donell (Reggie) Gardner was born to the late Willie Richard Gardner, Sr. And Lovie Mae Gardner on July 21, 1968 in Springfield, Tennessee. Reginald moved to Atlanta in August of 2000 where he started his career with TBI Management at Hartsfield-Jackson Airport, where he worked for 13 years on the night shift as a supervisor of International Operations. It was here that he meet his wife Yvonne of 9 years and friend for nearly 15. They spent many nights on the phone telling childhood stories and talking about work at the airport. They shared many fun times at Olive Garden and eating steaks at Long Horn and boy could he eat. There was never a dull moment when he was around.

“ My condolences to Reggie's family & friends. I worked with Reggie at the International Airport in Nashville TN in the Operations Dept. There was never a dull moment working on the shift with Reggie. Reggie was a picky eater, but loved my green pea salad, would always ask me to bring it in for "him" with other dishes on different occasions and had ask me to make him one when he come into Nashville. He got a kick out of telling me so many stories and I always believed all he told me! Even though I only kept in touch with Reggie on the computer after he left Nashville, I will always remember Reggie and will cherish the memories of working with him. May God continue to keep the family close and comfort them in this time of sorrow. Reggie will be missed by all that knew him! Prayers!
