“ My Dearest Friend Robert,

I will truly miss you. As I look back now, we have shared many memories from our youth through adulthood. And, words cannot Express how I felt when I was informed of your passing as I was expecting to see you once again . With that being said, I do believe, we will meet again and reminisce over old times. Until then, sleep peacefully my faithful friend.

*Respectfully,
Patricia (Nix) Okusanya*

“ My Uncle Robert. I'm so lost for words and still in shock. You have been the other male figure in my life since I was born. I'm so going to miss you. I'll forever remember me and Susan taking the subway to your job on 42nd Street in New York City and you would give us money to eat at the Chinese Restaurant. I was always excited when you came to Brooklyn to visit us and you kept a pocket full of change to give us. You always treated us to nothing but good times back in the day. You were known for giving your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews nicknames. You made everyone feel loved and you showed us love. I loved talking about the old days with you. Your memory was so sharp. You have left a big void in your family's lives. All we've done this week is talk about you. I know you're in good hands now, rest in peace! Just know you were truly loved and adored.

Your loving niece,
Joyce Williams
