“ Robert Lee Green, Jr. was a dear friend of mine, more like a brother. He was my first male best friend at the tender age of 11 years old. My first friend when I moved from Atlanta to College Park. I thought he lived in Hampshire House Apartments because he was always over there. Then, I found out he lived in a house near Lakeshore Drive.

Robert was my buddy, ace boon koon, and Uncle Rob to my daughter Callie. He and I used to be partners who competed against everybody at Kathleen Mitchell Elementary. The Dynamic Duo during field days (we won all of our events), my tree climbing, skateboarding, and double dutch partner. That's right! Rob could double dutch and play hopscotch. He was so competitive and so much fun. Oh my goodness... We laughed all the time. Spent hours on the phone. I called his mama, mama and he called my daddy, daddy. I miss him and it's hard because we had just spoken on Thursday before he passed. Before we even said hello, we laughed for a good 3 minutes on the phone. Danielle and I talked and laughed on Thursday too. I had made plans with Rob to see him Tuesday or Wednesday, but I got that dreadful call. These are just a few of my memories of soooo many and I'm certain many people have others. Rob was everybody's ride or die. He lit up the room with his Cheshire Cat!

I remember when he met Danielle, he was the happiest! Called me and said "Sis, I met my wife!" Such a beautiful thing. I was so happy for my brother. And when Pumpkin was born, you talking about a proud daddy! That was Robert! Dani, we love you and the kids and know that I'm just a phone call and drive away.

One more thing to make you all smile... In the famous words of Rickey Smiley, "We Miss Rooooobert!"
