

Roger C. Smith

August 2, 1950 - July 29, 2018

Roger C. Smith, Sr. was born to Marion Carmicheal and Pearl Nelson Smith on August 2, 1950 in Hapeville, GA.

Mr. Smith received his education from the Atlanta Public School System and later went on to Vocational School. He built a wealth of knowledge and experience working as a Heavy Equipment Operator driving throughout the county as he journeyed to working for the City of Atlanta where he retired. He expressed himself and his talents through Semipro Football and many hobbies such as art & woodworking at the community art center, lawncare, and mechanic work throughout his life.

Through all his work and hobbies, he spent most of his later years dedicated to living God's will at Mathalama AME Church where he served with the Trustee Board, Steward Board, W.M. Lacey Male Chorus, Male Usher Board, Van Ministry, Sons of Allen (former President), and Sunday School. He took pride in attending to maintaining the Church repairs and lawncare as well as keeping the grounds safe and secure.

As he walked his journey, Mr. Smith was blessed with his son Gary Felton, soon joined by Wife, Vivian Smith and sons Roger Smith, Jr. and Adante Smith, and later Wife, Charlene Smith and daughter Jazmine Smith.

From the beautiful life he lived, he leaves his four children, a host of grand children, two brothers, Jean and Jimmy, one aunt, Pearl Favors and an endless family of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends to honor, cherish, and celebrate his life and memory.
