

Ronnie Brown Jr.

August 5, 1975 - January 12, 2024

Ronnie brown Jr. born August 5th, 1975 to Patricia Cloud and the late Ronnie Brown Sr. in Riverdale Georgia. He is the oldest son of five children. He departed January 12th, 2024.

He joined Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church in his young years and was a faithful member of the youth children choir. He also played recreation football for the McDonough Cougar's. He joined the Henry County Warhawk's years later in Jr high and high school. After High School, he continued his football career in Hutchinson, Kansas at Hutchinson Community College.

Jr. enjoyed his job very much at the Center for Disease Control (CDC) where he worked in an office as a Inventory Management Specialist. He begun working for the CDC in 2006 when he was 30 years old. He was a Civil Service employee.

He enjoyed coaching as he later became one of the coaches of the Glenwood Panthers Football team. Jr. was also a member of a bowling team with his co-workers.

He was an animated bowler. He had his own signature way of rolling that ball down the lanes. Jr also loved shooting pool where he and his brother, Reginald, met up every Wednesday to play.

Ronnie believed in keeping in touch with friends and family as he was very active in one of the cousin group chats. He was loved by many. A good man that was very helpful, disciplined, and forgiving.

He leaves to mourn his passing: a loving mother, Patricia Cloud (David), the late Ronnie

Brown Sr. (Deborah), brother's Reginald and Rodney Brown (Mike/Maurice), sister's Shantanda

and Crystal Phillips (Diedra), daughter Janessa Valle, son's Ronnie Kashon Brown III, Joseph Smith, King E. Brown, seven grandchildren, other relatives, and friends.

“ When I received the news of Ronnie's passing, I was both shocked and heartbroken. Whenever I stopped by his office with a request, he would break out that big smile and say, "Consuelo you know I got you, let me see what I can do". You will be sadly missed here at CDC. My prayers of condolences go out to your family, may the Holy Spirit provide comfort to you during the time of bereavement.

With a heavy heart,

“ I want to send my condolences to the Brown family I'm Deanna's cousin I remember the first time i met Ronnie, he was very respectful we didn't know each other, but after 10 minutes talking to him .Like we knew each other for years a very kind soul was always willing to help you if you needed it very good father to his children, he would put them first in everything really caring towards Deanna her family as well. I'm so very sorry this happened all of you in my prayers may Ronnie rest in peace he isn't hurting anymore but I know the family is hurting right now! I pray GOD gives you the strength and healing comfort to get through this process.
