“ My Auntie Sabrina was the most phenomenal woman I've ever known. She taught me how to think beyond the current situation. She taught me how to find solutions instead of dwelling on the problem. I love you forevermore and I'll see you again one day! Please watch over me and give me guidance as you did while here on earth.

“ It was a sunny day at MCAS EL TORO, California. I was going to Wing Headquarters, when I noticed this BEAUTIFUL women in the uniform. As we approached one another, I said good morning. She returned with, Good Morning Marine, Uh PFC (Private First Class), I don't know if you know this but your shevrons are upside down..LOL. You may want to fix that before you get in trouble. Her voice rang with sincerity, and I listened and had it corrected before duty.

I later learned that Sabrina and I stayed in the same barracks across from headquarters. I went to her room to thank her, and we burst out laughing about it. That was the day I found a true friend. Sabrina had a heart to GIVE and she gave much love and support.

When others tried to steer me wrong, she ALWAYS stepped in and made them MAKE IT RIGHT! She had a strong belief in God, family, friends and LOVE. Her husband, children and family were the Love of Her LIFE. Oh how she loved them 😊. I have soooooo many WONDERFUL memories of our friendship and heartfelt conversations. Sabrina had a spirit that would inspire you to share your fears and those inner thoughts of humility that many of us only share with God.

I have learned down through the years that when someone opens the Love in YOUR HEART, it is because of the LOVE in their HEART and it stays with you to pass it onto others. I pray we will all Heal in Love and Peace and always remember the Love we had among us. “Oh How MARVELOUS” to rest in the Arms of Love and God.

Sincere Condolences from my family to yours,

Denise, Alexandria and NaTysha
