

Samuel Lee Dinson

February 9, 1946 - February 26, 2017

Samuel L. Dinson was born February 9, 1946 to the late Eva Mae Dinson-Lee and the late Willie 'Bill' Scott and the occasion met with much happiness.

As he grew it became apparent that Sam had a love for baseball and collecting baseball cards.

He had a love for Art and Music. He was very skilled in working with his hands and had many talents. Sam enjoyed learning and reading. Sam loved reading the Bible. He was very studious. Sam graduated from David T. Howard High School in Atlanta Georgia.

Sam was known for being industrious. He was diligent and hard-working. He worked energetically and was devoted to his employers and work -mates. He would say 'work smart to get that hard work done'. Wise

Sam truly loved his Family and Friends. He loved cooking and talking. Sam was known to give his opinion and have his say in such a way that would make you stop and think about getting your life together. He would leave you asking yourself – What Am I doing with MY Life. And see that our choices in Life either make us weaker or wiser.

Sam was a simple and a very thankful, kind loving person. Even during his illness. The doctor's and nurses always commended him for kind sweet eyes and the mild spirit he had. Sam left an imprint on our hearts and mind. Sam, you will Truly Be MISSED!!!!!!!

Sam leaves to cherish His MEMORIES, His wife Elaine Dinson; three children, Keisha Dinson, Samuel Dinson, John Alexander; step daughter Shalanda; grand-son Alvanta; Sisters, Gracie Crawford, Vanessa Bolden, Elaine Wise (Ralph); Brothers, Willie James Scott (Clarinda), Tommie George Scott, Daniel Wilson; Aunt, Nechil Grace Dinson; Special Cousins, John Bowden (Helen), Marie Williams (Herman); Numerous Aunts, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins and Friends. Preceding him in death was His Mother: Eva Mae Lee, His Father Willie "Bill" Scott and Step Mother Sallie Scott.
