“ I miss my friend soooo much. I miss our girl talks. I miss us trading stories about "the boys" (that's what we called the kids). We'd get together for lunch when we could make time. Besties since 6th grade lol. I love her. I miss her

“ Sarah was a very beautiful person inside and out. We shared lots of laughs from Middle School and High School. We were in chorus together and there are many memories just from those concerts, rehearsals, and trips. You were always smiling and a very sincere and genuine person. May you forever rest in peace.

“ This is a hard one for Me to know the your Gone my Dear Friend Sarah, I met you in Germany with Your Husband Avery, and Malachi, I remember Malachi growling lol, I told my husband Their a nice young family, and we met again at the daycare center where the kids attended, I was Collin’s Teacher, we kept in touch going to Hawaii and seeing each other again, you were a little apprehensive about the schools there, You called me Ms Pam, I told Sarah do your part as a Parent at home and your boys will be ok, I would keep the boys, Pick them up from school whenever she needed, She would keep my Granson also, we looked out for each other, We even went to church together sometimes, you were so Full of life, You loved your Boys with everything you had,you accomplished so much in life even going through your Challenges, You stood Proud and Tall and never gave up on Anything, Girl your were like family to Me I will always cherish the memories that we shared as Military Wives, God spoke to me to go to you one Sunday to check on you and Avery and I did what I was instructed to do, and that day I let you and Avery know your family now to me, To the Boys And Avery, I Ms Pam and Roger if you ever need us we’re here, my Dear Sarah I know your watching over everyone with that Beautiful smile, REST EASY IN THE LIVING ARMS OF GOD.

Sarah had such a beautiful smile! I had first met her when Malachi entered kindergarten. He was my student for only a short time before moving to Hawaii. I had the privilege to know and teach some of the cousins in the family as well. I will never forget when Sarah and her family moved back to Georgia. I was so excited to see them! The Griggs family had grown quite a bit. It was common to see them at school for functions. Please know that your family has my deepest sympathy and prayers. Sarah will be missed. Pam Harvel

“ *Sarah I am truly going to miss you. As I sit here writing this I can remember so clearly of all the memories we had working together at Walmart and then after Walmart we were always together. We had long talks and even when you were gone we still talk through messenger and email. You always use to see how I was doing and the kids. You were always so encouraging everyone we spoke and we would always say I love you before we talked. I am so glad we talked before you passed. I know you are in a better place now and we are all going to miss you dearly love you always “ Words can not express how I am feeling about losing you so soon, I thank god for giving me the years that I had with you. I am so glad that I got a chance to see you and talk to you before you pass. Life will not be the same without seeing you smiling face always the life of the party. I will cherish all the memories we shared together and I will never forget you. I can remember when we went to griffin tech together and we took a math class together how we talked and laughed so much that teacher was so mad but at the same time we had an A and she moved us apart for final exam and how we cut up so much. Football season will not be same without us going back and forth about our teams. I wish I could have told u I love u one last time but I did not get that chance. I love you Sarah rest on and I will truly miss u forever in my heart I love u always.

“ As I look at the photograph of Sara, it still seems unbelievable. Today though I'm happy that God gave me the opportunity to be introduced to this beautiful young lady. Her smile is what stood out with me as well as her intelligence whenever she made a business call to me. I won't pretend to understand your (the family) pain, however, I want the family to know that I love you all! If there is anything that I can do, please don't hesitate to let me know. Meanwhile, I'm still in prayer for your strength and you just remember that JOY cometh in the morning!!!

Love,
Sister Lucy

“ Some of my fondest memories of Sarah are when we were on our way to church--sitting in the back of the ranger was Yolanda, Shun, K.C, Rachel, Sarah, Pooh Bear & me. We would be cutting up as children..and of course Sarah always gave the biggest smile when we were joking...well, maybe not as big as Shun. We grew up as the children of God--so we danced, song, and even shouted together. Sarah was always so confident, so strong-willed..especially when she got the mic. She was so little but would sing with the biggest voice and always ended a song with her big smile. I can even recall the first time we all had to quote 1 John Chapter 1. Sarah was among the younger girls who had to quote the chapter too. She got up..head up..eyes wide..standing as if she was a foot taller. I remember her quoting that scripture with such confidence and accuracy...and all I could think of was, "Yes! One more score for the girls." High five to Sarah--but of course we were not about to high five in front of Elder! I remember seeing her grow into a beautiful young lady and hearing her voice--wow, it was just as beautiful as she was. We all song a song together--Sarah, Santrice and Rachel--but I cannot remember it now. Maybe someone will remember and let me know. Of course, they all had beautiful voices---and I should have been the back up singer.

I thank God to have had an opportunity to share in the joy of who she was as a young girl until she reached adulthood. She was very passionate about her family--just ask K. C.--she would be ready to claw him when he and Shun had a tussle(lo!!)

I didn't think I would shed so many tears, but I have. Just remembering how life was so much simpler when we were children growing up in the faith. But even in this moment, she has given me inspiration--that I must continue to press forward and be what God has called us to be..."the children of God."

Praying that God would continue to bless the family and strengthen your hearts in Jesus Name. My family and I love each and every one of you from the abundance of our hearts!

“ Sarah Ruth, living down the road from each other majority of our lives, riding the same bus everyday, to choirs competition, to walking the same stage at graduation, those walks were always together as cousins. Growing up and taking our adult paths we didn't see each other as much. But when we linked up the times were still the same. Our journey was cut short together and it has been so hard to deal with. I know you are at peace and I know the God you served and because of that I am thankful. " Sae Ruth" that was always my nickname for you when I saw you, I love you cousin and I will forever miss you.

“ My dearest friend Sarah. It still doesn't seem real. We didn't need to talk everyday for us to share our happiness with each other. We loved cheering each other on. We loved being all boy moms. You always had the best advice for me. You were one of the realest and a real life hero. I will miss you my beautiful friend. Praying lots for your entire family. Rest easy.... Rest in love.
