“ My name is Taylor Robinson on Easter 2015 is when my life changed I was the last friend he got to see I was holding him when he died before I was shot and a short time after I was shot he told me to get help after I got shot i seen him going away I was 17 never been shot at before scared for my life he seen that in my face I told him I wanted to stay he said go find help I put him down and ran to the door knocked on the door to my mom calling 911 then trying to stop the bleeding on my legs I couldn't feel it anymore barely able to walk a short time later our other friend knocked on the door and fell in the living room he was shot in the thigh hurt bleeding bad and I forgot he was out there 911 was called but I forgot about him i was there with him as he was passing away i was holding him talking to him i didnt know what happened fully i didnt know where he was hit at or even what to do when i got in the house and discovered acouple other people was shot falling on the floor bleeding out hurting i forgot that's my regret but i was there for him until his last seconds i was there i told him even after i got shot and was crying hurting that i didnt want to go he said go find help the police took 30 mins to a hour to come then they came asking me for my I.D like i did it like he was scared to help us the ambulance took another 10 minutes my mom went out there and said he was gone said he was on his stomach when I laid him down on his back he tried to call for help also the strongest man ever none of this probably make any sense cause it's all emotions and stuff I havent seen this I was shocked to find his picture on google made me tear up I'm at work I have twins now been struggling homeless couldn't play sports anymore couldn't go to the military right now I have a bullet in my right calf when I run to much or walk to long it swell up and I walk with a limp everyday my life my family life his family life changed forever and I'll stay and get shot again if I know I can spend his last few minute with him being comforted and see his friend there with him he taught me and my big brother alot him and chris and I never forget him ever he is apart of my story I was holding him when I got shot all of a sudden my leg went the other way bullets flying pass my head flying between our faces as I was talking to him still I was there with him to the very end he made me leave and go get help then so much happened after that I forgot I had laid him on the grown to get help when my mom went out to check he was gone he tried to call for he tried it hurts everyday I feel like I should have stayed until it was over he see my face in the last second I wish my life has been the ultimate struggle even now ingot kids a boy and a girl 10 months now i havent been able to to take them to see his mom and dad which are they god parents i just been working hard trying to be the best dad ever the dad he said his dad was the dad he wanted to be the dad I want to be I learned alot from him you he will not be forgotten.

“ Words really can't explain how I feel. Its still shocking to me knowing my Lil cousin is gone off this earth. I don't want to question Gods work. The lord call his angle home for a reason. I'm soo sorry you guys had to bury your son so soon. The lord wouldn't put nothing on nobody if he knew they couldn't handle it. I'm trying to stay strong for you guys but it's hard sometimes. Now may my angle fly and look down on his lovely family. Rest on my love. We love and miss you babyboy. Stay strong my loves!!! He's now in a better place. No more worries loves!! I love you auntie and uncle!!!

“ We still smile when we think about when you were a little boy & would put a towel (for hair) & hat on your head & dance just like Michael Jackson. We enjoyed the time we spent with you & your friend on Easter Sunday. That was a special day!!! We will forever love & miss you.

“ To hear my cousin was taken away from us suddenly, i will miss you dearly and will always think of you growing up chasing the lizards and calling them alligators, too bad i can no longer joke with you about it, still proud of the young man you became. Now you can forever shine your guiding light down on the family to let us know your watching over us. I hate to to see off but journey home Cousin...
