“ Sending love and prayers to Helen and family. Thomas was a wonderful, kind man, who was always happy! I have been so blessed to have Thomas in my life. When I was young, he taught me what it truly meant to be a friend. My dad, Calvin Flowers, often said he didn't know what he would do without Thomas and his friendship. They were inseparable—there for each other through thick and thin.

As the years passed, I came to understand firsthand what a friendship with Thomas was like. After my dad passed away, he became like a father to me, sharing stories of their times together and offering the strength we needed during those hard years. And boy, did he teach me a thing or two about construction work and hanging sheetrock!

I will always cherish the memories of us sharing stories, a McDonald's chicken sandwich, a Coke and happy times. Thomas was a true friend and a blessing in my life. He will be deeply missed.

Love,

Nancy Flowers Wallace

“ When I think of the word 'friend,' Thomas truly embodied its meaning. He was kind, and his smile always let you know he cared and you could always count on him for anything. I have so many cherished memories of my husband, Cowboy, and Thomas working long days side by side, always there for each other. We are so deeply sorry for your loss. He will be greatly missed.

Love,
Shirley Flowers
