“ I met Tiffany when she was 18 years old working at the same company. Tiffany always had an beautiful smile and a beautiful personality to match. I had lunch with Tiffany in September of 2018. We sat for hours just talking and catching up on our lives. We had not seen each other for years but we seem to pick right back up where we left off. It was clear that Tiffany loved her family and it showed in everything she did. Tiffany will be missed. I will miss her post about her twin grand-daughters and her children and husband. I love you Tiffany.

Thank you Blair for being my wife friend down through the years. The lunch with you she couldn't stop talking about it to me. Tiffany really had fun that day seeing you and catching up. Yes, I will miss the post on the twins and family she did on weekly bases. Thank you for being for my family. Keep in touch. Robert

Jennifer I have always saw you as an extension of my family. The people you work with are just that. Thank you for you kind words and taking time to reflect on my wife. Your prayers are felt and comforting because my family is feeling the love and support through uplifting words that are being shard in post like this.

“ I met Tiffany a few times visiting Robert at Sears. I know she was a wonderful wife and mother to their two boys. My prayers are with you all and pray for God's peace to comfort you during this time.
