“ Much love Momma T: I met Miss T in 2006 when my parents moved to GA and I started high school. Her and my mom hit off and from then she was more like Momma T! She stayed looking out for me and my sister and always greeted us with a smile, excitement and loving words. I went out into the world and God brought me back to McDonough with a family of my own and Momma T never changed, still a beautiful angel that looked out for me and many others. One time last year I was having car troubles and needed a ride to the auto store to pick up a part. I called up Momma T and ask if she could take me and to my surprise she said better yet just use my new car, I trust you. I was blown away by her kindness and I'm thankful for the opportunity to know someone like her and I know she's still the same angel smiling and looking out for us behind the sense. Much love with my all my heart Sydney Bryan (AJ)

“ Tionna,

I have looked at this page a million times and it still doesn't seem real. I know you are working hard up there because you have a lot of hearts down here that are aching about your recent departure that you are trying to help ease the pain for. I hear your voice at night helping me go to sleep. I feel your touch when I start to get overwhelmed, letting me know that it is ok. I see your joy in the smiles of your handsome kings faces. I feel you lift me up when I get weak. You are the reason I stand strong for my family right now. I am doing what I know you would want me to. Never in a million years did I ever think I would have to do this for one of my sisters. I remember when we were kids and we use to sing "Superwoman" with our hairbrushes as our mics. Haha, those days will never be forgotten. Tionna you are a superwoman to me. I apologize if I never told you. You ARE my big sister and will always have that title no matter where your soul is. I don't want to speak of you in the past tense because to me you will never be the past. I will do everything I can to be like you. Kind, loving, gentle, smart, ambitious, caring, admirable, funny, persistent. You took a piece of me when you died and I know I will never get that back from anyone here. But I tell you this, hold it for me until we meet again because its mine and I want it back. I love you big sis. Please help God keep me safe on those roads and when I mess up remind God that I am really a good person and that I deserve forgiveness. Please be my guardian angel and guide me. I have always followed your lead and there is no reason for me to stop now. Most importantly please be happy and never stop smiling because as long as you are smiling so will I. I love you just doesn't seem to really express how I truly feel about you. No words will ever be able to so just read my heart...

“ I still say I Love You, But now there's no reply.
I always feel your presence
As if you never left my side.
I remember your comforting voice.
Now there's not a sound.
Only echoes from the past
Follow me around.
You're always by my side, But I can't hold your hand.
The reason why God took you
I find hard to understand.
Summer days seem much shorter.
Dark nights just linger on.
Dreams turn into nightmares
When the one you love has gone. Her spirit will never die.
It shines like the stars.
I know you're sleeping in heaven, But you're living in my heart.

“ Tionna, I'm trying to wrap my head around this and it's hard to believe. You were more than just a classmate to me. It was way more than just studying nursing. You became a friend. A shoulder to lean on and a listening ear. A diary. We talked about life, vented, cried together, and studied hard. Writing a memory seems so unreal but the higher power needed you more. I pray for the entire family and everyone that is deeply affected by this. Sending love, hugs, and strength to the family. We love you T and you're truly missed. You've gained your wings and your fight here is won. Rest in heavenly peace!!! ❤️

“ To our dearest friend. We love you and we sincerely will miss your sweet and humble spirit. You were Christ like in your walk and was a lamppost example of how we should carry ourselves. No matter what came your way, you faced it with love and logic. When you found yourself "lost", you sought wisdom. Thank you for sharing a part of your earthly journey with us. We have it from here sweet friend. May it be the Most High Gods will that you find well deserved rest in the bosom of Father Abraham, until our spirits have the pleasure of meeting again.

“ Tionna was truly an angel right here on earth. Her beautiful smile was contagious. I worked with her a CCSO. She would have a baggie with cheerios inside and would be going upstairs to work out on her lunch break, she always had a kind word to say whenever she would see me like hi beautiful how is your night going? If she knew something was bothering me, she would say Ms. Holly, it's going to be alright just you wait and see. I remember meeting her oldest 2 sons so many years ago. I remember going to her baby shower when she was pregnant with her 3rd son. Tionna loved her family. I am still in disbelief. I am praying for each of you especially her sons, mother and siblings. May you find comfort and peace in God. Tionna my sweet angel may you rest in Heaven, and I shall see you again. Tionna you will forever be in my heart.

“ Cousin, where do I begin.... You were such a sweet soul. Every time you saw me it was nothing but love. I remember us running loose in west cove and getting up and walking all the way to south dekalb mall. We didn't complain about the distance because we were just happy to be out of the house. You're going to be truly missed. I'll always love you girlie. Take your rest.
