“ I loved working out with these ladies early every morning before sunrise. I loved the experiences we had. Toronda had lots of questions but that was to be expected and I think she was just challenging my skills but it was ok. Knives sharpening knives is how I saw it. She will definitely be missed in my heart.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Toronda at Newell Brands. She is the prototype and true embodiment of what an HR partner and leader should be. We laughed, we talked, I sometimes cried (she told me to stop - like only she can). Toronda provided honest, transparent, empathetic, and caring advice. I must say she will absolutely be missed. She was an amazing person to get to know, and I am honored and blessed to have had the time with her that was shared (however brief it was). You will be missed Toronda, rest well ma'am.

“ I keep asking myself if this is a dream, wishing I could wake up—but the truth is, it’s not. To my cousin, the most stylish woman I know, the no-nonsense lady with a heart of gold for helping others—you will be forever missed.

This loss has struck my heart deeply, and I struggle to find the words to express it fully. But what I can say is that I love you. Thank you for all the advice you gave me and so many others. You were as real as they come, teaching me so much about life. You always welcomed me and my family into the Clark home with love, and your wisdom will forever remain in my heart.

Our cousin trip will happen one day because you wanted it for us. While it feels like we were robbed of more time with you, God knew it was your time. This is not easy—not at all.

Cousin, your beauty was everything—inside and out. I will always see you in your daughters and your sister; they carry your light and your looks. Through them, I will hold onto you. And every chance I get, I’ll remind your nephews of how strong and beautiful their amazing aunt was. They will carry their own memories of you, but your name will live on through all of us.

You are deeply missed, cousin. I pray for strength for Scott, Courtney, Kennedy, and the Clark family; Tony, Tamika, Ace, AJ, and the Elliott family; Aunt Nettie; the Roebuck and Mills families; first cousins, second cousins, and everyone who knew and loved our beloved Toronda. This loss is profound, but I pray we continue to hold onto each other with love and grace.

“ To Aunt Nettie Whitner, the Clark, Mills and Robuck families: You have our deepest and heartfelt condolences from the Hardy family.
No words can express the depth of your loss.
Toronda had such a loving and sweet spirit.
She will be missed by her family and the Spartanburg community.
May God, grant you love, peace, and strength as you endure this most difficult time. You know that she is resting in the awesome presence of God. Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
Toronda’s eternal spirit is in the presence of God and with eternity as a measuring rod, life is merely a pinpoint on the calendar of time.
God takes from the family here to form the family there. While she was here, her presence turned our thoughts for the best; her influence will linger in our hearts as long as we live. Heaven means more to us now that Toronda is there, for where our treasure is, there will our hearts be also. Remember: Those we love don’t go away; they walk beside us every day. Unseen, unheard but always near; still loved, still missed and very dear.
Love,
The Hardy Family

“ My first memory of Toronda is when I was put on stage last minute to make a speech. She came up to me with a big smile and told me I did great, she is so warm and gave me a boost of confidence.

She reached out second time to check in on me as I got moved to a different position due to company re-org. She took the time to know me as a person and trying to understand where my passion lies. She connected me to a few leadership network.

That is Toronda!! Always selfless and passionate about people's personal ambition, goals and dreams. She will be missed tremendously.

“ The world is a little darker without Toronda in it. I was so fortunate to have worked with her at Kraft and she was such a shining example of what a great HR leader is, caring, compassionate, tough and knowledgeable - someone who would say what needed to be if no one else was, who reached out o mentor and develop others, and who generously supported her leaders behind the scene so they could shine. Even though we have not worked together for over a decade we still texted several times a year to celebrate moments in our personal lives and share pictures with each other of our children as they grew. Sending love and compassion to her family - they meant so very much to her and I can only imagine the hole she has left.

“ As many of you, I am struggling to grasp that Toronda is no longer with us. She was a mentor and a friend. She had this ability to see you and support you, with whatever you needed. She wanted everyone around her to succeed. She was on the hiring panel, when I started at Heatcraft, as one of the few women sales engineers. She made sure she took me around and introduced me to all the 'important' people and would whisper who they were in my ear. It was very endearing and we grew really close. I was saddened when she left Heatcraft. When we got an email at work this week and I saw her name, my first thought was, maybe she's coming back. Unfortunately, I received the sad news of her passing. My heart is with the family, because if this hit me hard, I can only imagine what her family is going through. I lost my mom when she was 58 and Toronda was even younger than her. My sincerest condolences to the family. For her daughters, keep her alive in your memories and carry out her legacy.

“ Wow, will I miss Toronda! Working with Toronda was incredible. She had such a presence about her...you just wanted to know her! Every room she walked into was graced not only with incredible style, but with a level of confidence that sparked excitement in those around her. I loved getting to know Toronda during her time at Newell and worked with her closely. My favorite memory of Toronda was just after she was promoted to VP. During our HR townhall, Toronda shared an "about me" slide. Hearing her talk about her personal life was what really stuck with me. Gosh she loved her daughters and husband. I loved seeing the cheerleading photos, hearing about her "cheer mom" stories and learning she wore pearls every single day (and I will forever think of Toronda when I wear pearls!) “ It was shocking to lose Toronda so quickly from this life. Toronda's zest for living and compassion for others was evident in a first encounter with her. She embodied so many positive qualities and truly set a wonderful example for women on how to make an impact, how to break down barriers, never give up and always take the next step forward with a smile.

Toronda supported, encouraged and coached many people in her life. She made this world a better place. We will miss you dearly. We will forever be grateful for you and how you lifted others up.

My deepest sympathies to Toronda's family and close friends. I wish you peace and healing during this difficult time.

“ I was speechless to hear of Toronda's passing. She was such an amazing, beautiful (in and outside) truthfull, warm, caring person ! I had the honor to work with her at Newell and every time I connected with her there were 3 things I will always remember: 1/ she was for sure an early bird as she connected with me at 7:30 - 8:00 am (afternoon in my timezone), already in the office and fully dedicated to her job 2/ always a smiling face, which made my day always better 3/ first question she always asked : hey there, how are you ? not only thinking on what was on her plate, but always open to help and support. She was a calming influence, found a solution for everything and such a talent in everything she touched. I'll miss her deeply.

My warm thoughts and prayers are with her beloved family and friends.

“ This picture brings back such fond memories of when Toronda came to Las Vegas and we were able to reconnect after many years. We spent the day reminiscing about our KingsWood and Dorman High School days, catching up, and simply enjoying each other’s company. It was such a joy to reconnect and share laughs like no time had passed.

I’m deeply saddened to hear of her passing, and my heart goes out to her family and loved ones during this difficult time. Toronda’s kindness, warmth, and beautiful spirit will always be remembered. Rest in peace, my friend—you will truly be missed.

My brother sent me a message about Toronda's passing. Even though I hadn't seen her in years, I was shocked to hear the news. Gone too soon and far too young.

“ Toronda was truly a special person with a beautiful spirit, joyful, and always unapologetically herself. Her honesty and humor made her easy to love and learn from.

I will always treasure our chats, laughs and the wisdom she shared. I am praying for an abundance of strength and peace for her family during this difficult time. Toronda touched many lives and will be missed more than words can express, but her beautiful spirit and infectious smile I will never forget.

“ Words will never express how sorry I am for Toronda's family. I am angry, so very angry, but I am also so very blessed and fortunate to have had the pleasure of working with and befriending Toronda. Our 1st interaction at Newell was her watching me dance at my desk while working, calling me the dancing girl. She was such a caring, compassionate, strong woman. I admired her so much for that. Her personality was perfect. I will miss leaving notes in her office encouraging her to tackle the day. Her smile, the love she gave to us all, I will miss her dearly. Thank you Toronda for being such a fabulous spirit.

Blessings, love, and hugs to the Clark Family. God bless you all.

“ I am truly saddened to hear of Toronda’s passing. I have fond memories of Toronda, as we attended the same church growing up and sang in the church youth choir until we both left for college. Toronda had a confidence to be admired and a fiery spirit and infectious smile that I’ll always remember. My sincerest condolences to her beautiful family and all that knew and loved her. God Bless.

“ Toronda was a light in our daily work life at Newell. Her instincts on how people were feeling and her way of ensuring all voices were heard were just a couple of her towering strengths. I always knew a call from Toronda would mean making something better. Her smile would light up any room and her style was second to none. She was so proud of her family and we often talked about her girls over lunch. She will be missed so much and I am sending prayers to her entire family.

“ Toronda was an incredibly special person who left an impact on every person who was lucky enough to know her. She was filled with energy and passion and always put people first. She was a mentor and friend, and I will cherish everything I learned from her and the advice she has given me over the years we worked together. My favorite memory to hold on to is the early morning or late night video calls with her since we always had too many things to talk about. I will miss her laugh every day!!

All my love to the Clark family.

“ Toronda was one of my favorite people to run into in the office because of the genuine warmth she carried everywhere she went. She made time to talk to everyone and made you feel seen and valued over a casual breakroom conversation. Her laugh and smile were contagious – a true joy to work with. We were lucky to have her and I will miss her wisdom, her encouragement, her wit, and her amazing sense of style! My deepest condolences to her family.

“ I'm deeply, deeply saddened to hear of Toronda's passing. She was on my hiring panel when I was interviewing at Heatcraft in 2019, and she made an immediate impact on me from our very first encounter. She always believed in me, and I can honestly say that she was/is a major reason for the successes I've had since. But more notably, when I was really struggling, she'd pick me up and let me know that I was fine, and that things would all work out, and I'll never forget that. To Scott, her daughters and all who loved her, I am praying for you...praying for a peace and comfort that surpasses our own understanding.

“ My prayers go out to Toronda's family and to all who knew her. Toronda was one of those rare people who regularly lit up your day and made it better. She was compassionate, insightful and caring. And, she always knew how to show up in the greatest fashion! (Yes, I took notes to emulate her!)

I've heard that the more someone is missed, the more they made the world a better place. Toronda -- you are that person. I hope your family is comforted in knowing how special you made us all feel and how you made us better individuals. You will be missed. But, you will not be forgotten.

“ Toronda came to Louis Rich (Kraft) right out of college. Although she was young, she quickly established herself as a knowledgeable supervisor. In 1995, she became my Safety Supervisor, and we developed a boss-friend relationship that was truly supportive. She taught me how to excel in my role, embodying the ideal balance of accountability and camaraderie—she could issue a write-up and then invite you to lunch. Her intelligence and expertise propelled her through the ranks at Kraft in no time. I witnessed her personal growth alongside her husband as they started a family, and I always looked forward to the annual Christmas card showcasing their joy. I'm so glad we were able to met up in May. We reminisced about the people she met and her tenure at Louis Rich, and how those were the best days. I admired and loved her deeply. To Scott and the girls, I prayed for healing and comfort during this time of bereavement.

“ Toronda and I shared a love of family, sorority and common friends. Our paths overlapped at Kraft where she was a supportive colleague and mentor at times. I was excited to hear that we both had returned to the ATL and it was great seeing her when I ran into her at a sorority meeting a couple years ago. To Scott and her beautiful daughters, words cannot express the level of sympathy I send your way and I pray that one day soon, the fond memories you shared brings you more comfort than pain. My prayers go out to all who knew and love her. ”
