

Vera Brown

December 5, 1939 - August 22, 2014

Vera Brown was born in Ehrhart, South Carolina to the late Angus and Mamie Lee Brown on December 5, 1939. She attended Lewis Butler High School in South Carolina. Vera was an employee of the State of New York for 25 years, after which she retired, and relocated to McDonough, Georgia. Vera enjoyed baking delectable, melt in your mouth cakes from scratch. She also enjoyed spending time with her family, especially her granddaughter and great-nephews, whom she affectionately called “booboo”. Kind, loving, and compassionate, Vera has been a friend to many. She was a devoted Christian and a faithful member of the Wesley Chapel Methodist Church until the time of her demise.

Vera passed peacefully from this life on the morning of Friday August 22nd, 2014. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family, friends, and caregivers during the last days of her life.

Vera was preceded in death by her son. Vera is survived by her daughter; Stacey Nicole Lodge, granddaughter; Gianna Nicole Woods, grandson; Gregory Tyrell Brown, brother; Henry Cecil Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church Family, friends, and loved ones.
