

Vera Pittman Wise

September 9, 1944 - October 23, 2013

The lovely Vera D. Wise was born on September 9, 1944 to the marriage union of the late Gale Virginia McDaniel Allen and the late Andrew Pittman. She transitioned on to glory on October 23, 2013.

A divine, beautiful, spiritual and most kind woman a person could ever meet, always work a smile and was quiet in manner. She worked in banking for the thirty years and retired as Assistant Vice President from Bank of America.

Always an active member in her church life and most known for her singing in the choir, her stapled song was "Lord I Know You Been So Good." She was a member and part of the Celestial Choir at Green Forrest Community Baptist Church in Decatur, GA from 1985 to 1996. After retiring in 1995, she returned her membership back to the Philadelphia Baptist Church and moved back to native hometown of Hampton, GA.

Leaving to cherish her life long memories are three sons, Herbert M. Blalock of Hampton, GA, Phillip C. Blalock of Atlanta, GA, and Andrew C. Wise of Hampton, GA; two grandsons, Phillip C. Blalock, Jr. and Phillip C. Blalock, III of Decatur, GA; two great grandchildren, Christian C. Blalock and Armoni Blalock; two step daughters, Bobbie Wise Johnson (Langston) of Charleston, South Carolina and Rhonda Wise Miller (James) of Griffin, GA; a loving devoted sister and brother in law, Juanita and Willie Johnson; three uncles, George Thomas McDaniel

(Willie Mae), Bobby McDaniel, Sr. (Barbara); a host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
