

Virginia Johnson

April 7, 1939 - October 2, 2018

McDonough Chapel

Virginia was born April 7, 1939 to the late Ed and Lillie Amey. On October 2, 2018, she was called home as she gained her wings. Virginia grew up in the McDonough Community and attended the Henry County Training School, where she graduated in 1957.

She joined Wesley Chapel United Methodist Church at an early age, where she accepted God as her Savior. She was a faithful servant on the Nurses Guild's and United Methodist Women until her health began to fail.

She was employed by Fort Gillem until her retirement. She then devoted her love and care to help raise her grandson Roderick.

Virginia Johnson was preceded in death by her son, Anthony Johnson, sisters Mary Ruth Hall and Bernice Daniels, and her brother, Willie Floyd Amey.

She leaves to cherish her memories, daughter, Joyce Johnson (Eddie Sanders); sons, Michael Johnson (Joann Battle) and Luburn Johnson (Gail); six grandchildren, Rodney Johnson (Amy), Roderick Johnson, Lakesha Usher, Tasha Smith, Javorious Johnson and Jocelyn Johnson; with a host of great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
