

Wayne Lewis Mitchell Sr.

January 18, 1957 - August 26, 2024

On January 18, 1957, Wayne Louis Mitchell Sr. was born to the late Randolph and Annie B. Mitchell Sr. of Hampton, Georgia. He was the eighth of nine children born to this union. His sister, Dorothy Merritt, and his brother Otis Mitchell Sr preceded him in death.

Wayne became a member of Cleveland Chapel AME at a young age and graduated from Henry County High School in 1975. Wayne retired from Nestle in McDonough GA in 2019.

Wayne loved to ride his lawnmower, walk in his garden, and spend time with family and friends. He could be found under his pecan tree, sharing memories and life lessons with family and friends. He listened with a nonjudgemental ear, his advice was simple and real. He shared the "This N That" with all who knew him.

On August 26th, 2024 Wayne Louis Mitchell Sr was called home to glory, leaving to cherish his memory to his loving wife of 43 years, Martha Mitchell. His daughter Naquil (Titus) Wilburn and his son Wayne Mitchell Jr. His grandchildren Yavue Mitchell, Nylah Wilburn, Wayne Mitchell 3rd, Kaden Mitchell, and Ava Smith.

His siblings Betty Long, Bobby Mitchell, Martill Bryant, Randolph Mitchell Jr, Martha Jane (Homer) Pittman, Georgia (Harold) Pittman, and Chevy Milford.

Four sisters in law, Debra Wilson, Darlene Pittman, Renia Davis and April Pittman. One brother in law, Keely Pittman and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and other relatives and friends.

“ Wayne was so much fun, we grew up together. Henry County High School had nothing on our class. Class of 1975!!!!
Wayne was the life of every thing., he had such a GOOD sense of Humor. I hadn't seen him in a while, but GOD is still GOOD. Rest on Wayne, you're with your other fellow classmates/brothers. We will truly Miss You!!!
RIP!!!
Condolences to the family, from the Gaston Family. Patricia & Children
